This film focuses on the 'fourth wave' of Palestinian cinema, running from 1980 to the present and now considered a significant artistic force in world cinema. Films from this period have screened in major festivals, including Cannes, Berlin, Venice and Toronto, and have won internationally renowned awards.

Constructed as a series of dialogues in which the filmmakers speak on a series of linked themes, the subjects address their ancestral roots, their relationship to the landscape, the political situation and the concept of a Palestinian 'national' cinema.

Eva Kössner is a doctoral candidate at the Department of Social and Cultural Anthropology of the University of Vienna, and recipient of a DOC fellowship of the Austrian Academy of Sciences. In 2013/14 she was Junior Fellow at the IFK International Research Center for Cultural Studies at the University of Art and Design Linz. Her doctoral research has focused on personal narratives, social suffering and coping strategies of young Palestinians living under occupation. Her most recent work focuses on memory work of the Oslo Accords among transnationally connected Palestinians in Vienna, Amman and Palestine

ISA AMCE Ethnographic Film Series is a series of events organized by the Institute for Social Anthropology (ISA) in association with the Anthropology of the Middle East and Central Eurasia (AMCE) Network of the European Association of Social Anthropologists (EASA)
